Course Outline
A primarily studio based course that further explores hands on art tasks that introduce process whilst making links to the Inquiry Learning Model to ensure an individualised pathway for senior art students. This course further extends upon the Developing a Body of Work with an emphasis on art making, critique and reflection.

Julie Seidel
Julie Seidel is Head of the Arts at St Peters and has 30 years experience teaching Visual Art in Australia and overseas. She is currently a QSA Panel chair for Visual Art Brisbane East and has also recently introduced the Visual Art International Baccalaureate program to St Peters with students achieving outstanding results. Julie also established a P-5 art program within the college which uniquely links specialist art teachers with class groups and provides a seamless development into the middle school art program. A dedication to the teaching of aesthetics within the curriculum for all students motivates Julie to explore new strategies and approaches to teaching visual art. Julie considers the sharing of learning experiences with other teachers a fundamental part of the teaching profession.
