

DIGITAL CONVERSATIONS: DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES WITHIN EDUCATION

This discussion will look at the use of digital technologies within cultural, school and tertiary-based learning environments. How are digital technologies changing the role between teachers and students? How can learning experiences be enriched in environments that make use of digital technologies? And what are the challenges teachers and learning facilitators face in the advance of such resources? Speakers include, Michelle Mukherjee (Lecturer ICT Education, Faculty of Education, QUT), Rhys Cassidy (teacher and Vice President, Australian Teachers of Media QLD) and Amy Walduck (Digital Hub Coordinator, Brisbane City Council Libraries) .
